

Sally: "Can I have a pizza, veggies, a fruit salad and ice tea, please ?"

Jenny: "Can I have a ham sandwich, a salad, ice cream and a soda, please ?"

William: "Can I have pasta, a cupcake and an orange juice, please ?"

Partie à replier pour une activité de compréhension orale. Les consignes ci-dessus sont données par le professeur.

Sally, Jenny et William sont au restaurant et passe leur commande.

Ecoute les consignes de ton professeur et écris le numéro de chaque aliment et boisson commandés dans les bulles de chaque personnage.

The illustration shows three people at a restaurant table: Sally, Jenny, and William. A waiter in a grey vest and white shirt stands behind them, holding a notepad and pen. Three empty speech bubbles are positioned around them for writing. To the right is a menu of 16 numbered food items:

- 1: A plate of mixed vegetables (broccoli, carrots, bell peppers).
- 2: A hamburger with cheese, lettuce, and tomato.
- 3: A ham sandwich on white bread with lettuce and tomato.
- 4: A whole pizza with pepperoni.
- 5: A plate of spaghetti with tomato sauce and meat.
- 6: A red container of french fries.
- 7: A plate of mixed vegetables (broccoli, carrots, bell peppers).
- 8: A slice of pizza with pepperoni.
- 9: A cupcake with pink frosting and white sprinkles.
- 10: A bowl of fruit salad with strawberries, kiwi, and orange.
- 11: An ice cream sundae with three scoops (vanilla, chocolate, pink) and a wafer.
- 12: A blue plastic bottle of water.
- 13: A red cup of soda with a straw and a cherry on top.
- 14: A glass of orange juice with a slice of orange.
- 15: A glass of iced tea with a lemon slice and a straw.
- 16: A glass of orange juice with a slice of apple.